

CASBO Emeritus Member Listing

In an effort to assist school districts in identifying professionals for interim and project work, CASBO is collecting a list of Emeritus Members who are available for consulting work. CASBO is simply offering a list of Emeritus Members and is not endorsing, verifying information or otherwise involved in the relationship a district may choose to have with a member. The district and member take responsibility for any relationship or engagement. CASBO reserves the right to edit and/or refuse a listing. The list will be updated annually and participants are requested to provide updates as necessary.
